

Course Description

Course Title: Finance for Health Departments

Objectives: At the completion of the training the participant will be able to

- Describe the key aspects of public health financial management
- Describe accounting methods and the local health district budget process
- Identify statutory and compliance issues for local public health
- Discuss key financial indicators for local public health
- Discuss financial projections for local public health

Audience: This course is intended for new fiscal officers, fiscal staff, health commissioners, or senior health district leadership.

Prerequisites: Basic understanding of spreadsheets and high school graduate.

Level: Basic

Offerings: This course is offered annually. Upcoming classes can be found here: <http://aohc.net/aws/AOHC/pt/sp/education> or by calling 614.781.9556