“Uniting Our Voices – Advancing Public Health”

May 23-25, 2022

Conference Goal & Objectives

Conference Goal:

To advance public health in Ohio by uniting the voices of multidisciplinary public health professionals.

Overall Conference Objectives:

1. Identify public health practices that can reduce disparities in access and quality of care and improve health outcomes across populations and communities.
2. Describe public health resiliency in advancing the public health profession post-pandemic.
3. Describe resources and services that will best impact the greatest health disparities in populations most affected.
4. Identify opportunities for collaboration with local partners to advance public health programs.
